Community Reviews. One of the things I loved about 'The Other Countess' was the rich descriptions and historical detail that Eve Edwards has skilfully intertwined around the story. The setting is 1578 and we're treated to appearances by notable historical figures such as Queen Elizabeth, Walter Raleigh and Robert Cecil.

'The Other Countess' is a fabulous book, which really brings home the glamour and excitement of Elizabeth I's court. Even though I accidentally ruined it for myself by reading book 2 (The Queen's Lady) first, I still really enjoyed the book, which is a feat in itself.
